

Insurance products are financial products provided by insurance companies.

InsuranceProduct includes LifeInsurance, AutomobileInsurance, FireInsurance, and HealthInsurance.

LifeInsurance provides DeathCoverage and DisabilityCoverage.

AutomobileInsurance includes VehicleCoverage, DriverCoverage, and AccidentCoverage.

FireInsurance protects Buildings and Properties against FireAccident.

HealthInsurance covers MedicalExpenses and HospitalTreatment.

A PolicyHolder subscribesTo an InsuranceProduct.

An InsuredPerson claims InsurancePayment after an Accident.

InsurancePayment requires AccidentInformation and ClaimDocuments.

VehicleInformation is used in AutomobileInsurance.

BuildingInformation is used in FireInsurance.

A Hospital provides MedicalTreatment to an InsuredPerson.

A Doctor worksAt a Hospital.

An InsuranceCompany manages InsurancePolicy and InsuranceClaim.

InsuranceAgent sells InsuranceProduct to PolicyHolder.

InsurancePolicy includes Coverage and Premium.

Premium is calculatedBasedOn RiskFactor.

RiskFactor includes Age, DrivingHistory, MedicalHistory, and PropertyValue.

FraudDetectionSystem analyzes InsuranceClaim.

CustomerService handles ClaimRequest and PolicyInquiry.

InsuranceClaim is associatedWith AccidentReport.

EmergencyService supports AccidentResponse.

RepairCenter repairs DamagedVehicle after VehicleAccident.